

6. (18 pts) Provide the reagents necessary to transform the given starting material into the desired product. More than one step may be required. You must draw intermediate products (and showing your work may help earn partial credit).

