

6. (18 pts) Provide the reagents necessary to transform the given starting material into the desired product. More than one step may be required. You must show your work and draw intermediate products.

